Interested in becoming a member of the LRC? Please review the following documents and complete the membership application. If you have any questions, contact Membership Chair Carrie Eberhardt, labclubmembership@gmail.com, 214-543-4638. Please first set up a user account on www.thelabradorclub.com to simplify the process. If you wish to complete this application online, links are available. Otherwise, you may complete this paper application.

Before beginning the membership application, you must obtain letters of recommendation from at least two members in good standing who have personal knowledge of your qualifications. Sponsors must have been LRC members for at least one year. Sponsor letters should be included with your application. It is important that you furnish specific information regarding your experience, activities and involvements in Labrador Retrievers so that the Board of Directors can reach an appropriate decision under the standards of the Club regarding your admission as a member.

The Board reviews applications every quarter. New applicants should include a one-time non-refundable application fee of $50. If you submit this application as a scanned document via email, you will be invoiced for the $50 application fee.

If approved, the new member will be invoiced for the LRC annual membership dues. The LRC membership fee is $30 and expires annually on December 31st. Note: lapsed members (unrenewed by March 31st) must rejoin.
